

CAP sule

As we watch the sun quickly setting on another year, we find a few minutes to reflect on 1988, and recall events that will always be a part of our own personal file of memories. Some of those memories are happy — some sad — and as each of us grows just another year older, the true value of each of life's fleeting moments becomes more and more apparent.

1988 has certainly been a busy and important year in the life of C A P Communications, and each of us has shared that life in our own personal way.

We have all experienced the highs and lows of this rollercoaster called broadcasting — but would we really want to be part of any other daily lifestyle!!

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each of you for your efforts on behalf of C A P this past year. As we focus on the Christmas season and reflect on the love and warmth that surround our family units during this very special time of year, Anne and I would like to extend our warmest wishes to each of you, and may all your dreams, goals, and good fortune become reality in 1989!!

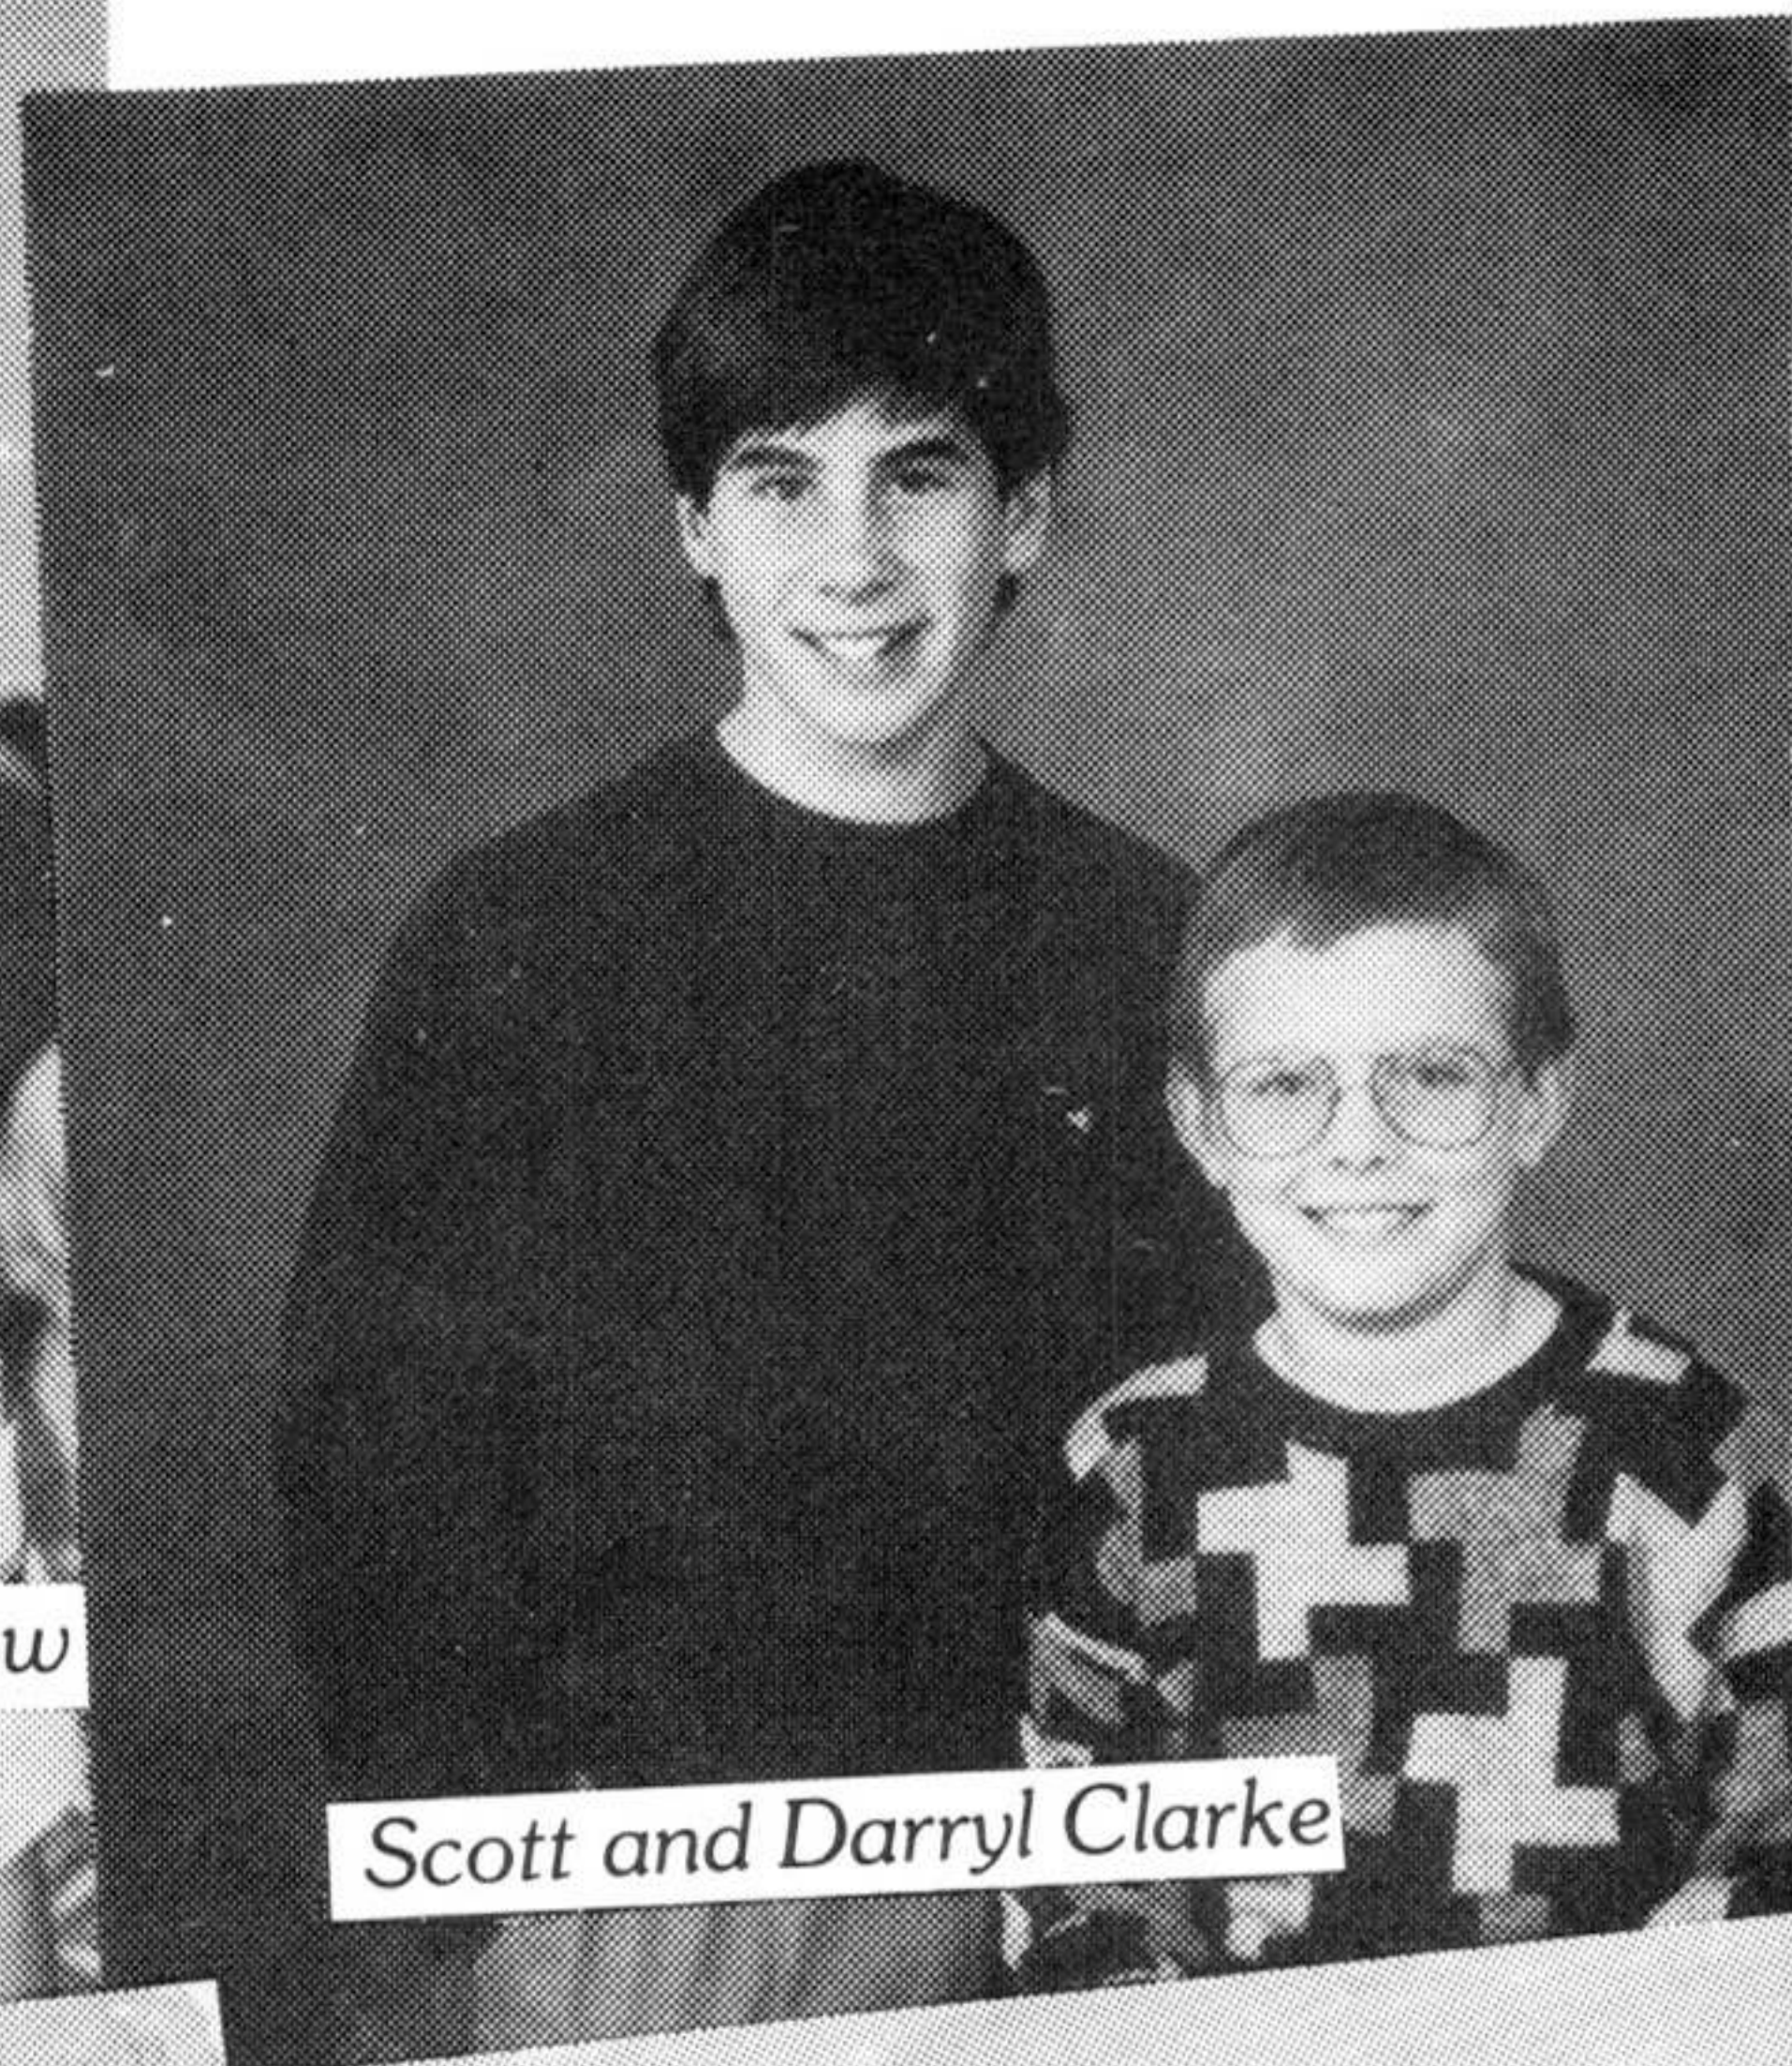

Compliments of the season,
